Congressman Clay Shaw is working to keep Palm Beach County safe from terrorists.

Homeland Security is important to Palm Beach County and its residents.

The threat of terrorism is very real in Palm Beach County. We have already been affected by terrorism—during the anthrax attacks. And there are several vulnerable targets for terrorists seeking to do us harm.

The Port of Palm Beach is the 4th busiest container port in Florida—18th largest in the U.S. and our county is home to a large international airport and three general aviation fields.

Unfortunately, despite the obvious risks we face here in Palm Beach County, we are not receiving the federal funds we need to protect our communities.

Clay Shaw is fighting for our fair share of anti-terror funds

Currently, the city of Miami is responsible for distributing Homeland Security funds to our region—including Palm Beach County.

$30 million in anti-terror funds were sent to South Florida, but Miami didn't designate any funds to Palm Beach County—not one single dollar. This is unfair and unacceptable.

Congressman Shaw has called on Secretary Tom Ridge of the Department of Homeland Security to designate Broward and Palm Beach Counties a separate area from Miami for anti-terror funding. This will allow America to better protect vulnerable parts of Palm Beach County.

Congressman Shaw will continue to work to secure our fair share of Homeland Security funding to protect our families.
